TaborSpace

The Portland Recorder Society presents “Blockflute Blockbusters”, a full day workshop with Glen Shannon on Saturday, July 11. Get ready to dive into some of his most favoritest recorder music throughout the centuries. We’ll savor standouts from the Franco-Flemish Golden Age with works by Senfl, Josquin, Isaac and more; visit the game-changing new style from Venice and the German High Baroque; enjoy fabulous contemporary pieces by living composers such as Raphael Meyer of Switzerland, Clive Lane from Australia, and Yours Truly from just down the street in California – maybe even some shiny new pieces fresh off the press. Bring any larger basses you might have hanging around, we will be needing them on occasion in the recorder orchestra pieces. Difficulty level will be about intermediate, but we might turn up the heat along the way and put the “work” in “workshop!”

Glen Shannon Biography

Glen Shannon is a composer and recorder enthusiast living in El Cerrito, CA where he is a member of the East Bay (CA) Recorder Society and newly appointed Co-Director of the Barbary Coast Recorder Orchestra. His love of straight forward, approachable music for the recorder has garnered him several prizes in composition contests since 1997, including the Chicago and Washington, DC Recorder Societies, the ARS and the former Amsterdam Loeki Stardust Quartet. Members of the former Flanders Recorder Quartet, Tom Beets and Joris Van Goethem, have commissioned works from him for their advanced-level "AirForce" workshops in the UK and Northern Europe, and they most recently commissioned a Bass-Contrabass duet that they recorded for their first CD, as the duo FR2. Glen publishes his music under his own name at www.glenshannonmusic.com, and has also had works published by Moeck Verlag, PRB Productions, Loux Music Publishing Company, the European recorder magazines, "Recorder" in the UK and "Blokfluitist" in the Netherlands, and the American Recorder Society. Performances of some of his works can be found on YouTube at www.youtube.com/glenshannon.

Glen is active in the American Recorder Society as editor of the quarterly Members' Library Editions, a series introducing new recorder music to the worldwide membership, and he is the editor of the annual ARS Play-the-Recorder-Month piece that appears with the Winter edition of the American Recorder magazine. In October 2021 Glen received the ARS Presidential Special Honor Award, recognizing a person who has had a significant positive impact on the recorder community in North America.

PRS Offering Instruments to Loan

Have you ever wondered what it is like to play a larger or smaller recorder? The Portland Recorder Society is making a musical instrument library available to its members. Members can borrow one of our library recorders for a month at a time to test it out at home, with friends and at our playing session. Some are available to purchase at reasonable prices. We offer four sizes of recorders, including a bent-neck tenor recorder (not for sale), which is especially useful for hands that have trouble reaching all the holes on a larger instrument. Those who already play all the sizes of recorders can testify that it expands their musical enjoyment to produce the low, mellow sounds of a larger instrument or to whistle away on a smaller one. This is also a good way to test instruments and learn what you like if you are thinking of buying one, either from us or from a music store. The list of available instruments and the conditions to borrow them is on the website. Click here or:

Washington County Playing Sessions

Skills Mini-Workshop**

Sunday, August 16th

We will have a skills mini-workshop on August 16 at the Brookwood branch of the Hillsboro Public Library, 2850 NE Brookwood Pkwy, Hillsboro, OR, for anyone interested in improving their playing skills. Topics covered will be such as breathing, breath support, tone quality, articulation, phrasing, finger facility, and practice tips, as well as any Q&A or other topics that might be of interest. It will be geared for beginner to intermediate players, but everyone is welcome. It will be the usual 2 hours (probably 2-4pm, but not yet finalized) and the music will be easy so that we can play together to illustrate/practice the concepts. If you have questions, please email membership@portlandrecordersociety.org for more information and to get the music.

Upcoming Events

Fall Fipple Flute Forum Two-Day Workshop and Concert

The Seattle Recorder Society announces that the sixth FFFF will return to the lovely Shoreline Community College north of Seattle on Saturday and Sunday, September 26-27, 2026. There will be a kick-off concert on Friday, September 25.
